WINGS

WINGS will be having their first Breakfast Meeting on Saturday, May 4th, at 9am at the Deerfield Family Restaurant located at 2215 John Deere Rd., East Moline. This will take the place of our regularly scheduled Thursday, May 2nd, meeting. At a prior meeting, the suggestion was made that having a meeting during the day might be easier for some members to attend. We will be discussing plans for upcoming events and your input is requested. In order to help us plan for this first-time event, please let us know if you think you will be able to join us. You can text or call Lona at 309-230-4800. Remember, all ladies of the parish are members of WINGS whenever they chose to participate in a meeting or activity. This is a great chance for you to join us and see what we are all about. We hope to see you there.

Thank You!

After playing many weekend, school, funeral, holy day, 1st Communion, Confirmation, graduation, etc. Masses, Nancy Swanson, our organist & liturgy music planner is retiring from the organ. 63 years of being available to help with music for whatever the occasion might have been. Nancy would jump in and help whenever and wherever it was needed when it came to music here at St. Anne. We can not thank you enough! To show her just a small token of our appreciation, St. Anne Parish along with Our Lady of Grace Catholic Academy will have a reception on Sunday, May 5th after the 10:30 am Mass in Cleary Hall. Please stop over for refreshments and thank Nancy for all her time and effort over her 63 years.

From the Pastor: The Countdown to Pentecost

One of the purposes of the Easter Season is to prepare us for the celebration of Pentecost. Unfortunately the celebration of Pentecost is all but forgotten in our culture; overshadowed by the festivities of graduation parties and/or Memorial Day weekend. This was not the case in the ancient Church. After the celebration of the Christian Passover (Easter Sunday), Pentecost was the next important celebration. Christmas was not celebrated until the 4th century.

Well, I know that I am fighting a losing battle, but I am determined to give Pentecost its due. After all, it is the birthday of the Church; the day which the Holy Spirit came down upon the Church empowering the Church to continue the ministry and mission of Christ. And if there was any time, that we should call upon the guidance of the Holy Spirit, it would be now: as we face the closing of Our Lady of Grace Catholic Academy; as we face the prospect of closing St. Mary's of Hampton. Bishop Tylka will announce his final decision concerning St. Mary's of Hampton on Pentecost Sunday, May 19th. So, I think this particular Pentecost Sunday, we should make a concerted effort to pray.

So, in light of what is happening in our area; with the encouragement of the universal Church, following the stipulations of the Roman Missal; we are going to celebrate a Solemn Vigil of Pentecost on Saturday, May 18th at 7:00 PM at St. Mary of Hampton. The Solemn Vigil is similar to the Easter Vigil, but not as complicated. It has also has a different emphasis; its character is not baptismal normally, but one of urgent prayer for the coming of the Holy Spirit:

- i. The Entrance Procession as usual.
- ii. But before entering the actual vigil, we will first pray vespers from the Liturgy of the Hours.
- iii. After Vespers, we begin the vigil of Pentecost with an extended Liturgy of the Word:
- iv. The priest begins with a prayer and some introductory remarks.
 - a. Old Testament reading from Genesis 11:1-9, followed by sung psalm response (Ps. 33); then a prayer led by the priest;
 - b. Old Testament reading from Exodus 19:3-8, followed by a sung psalm response (Dan. 3:52), then a prayer led by the priest;
 - c. Old Testament reading from Ezekiel 37:1-14, followed by a sung psalm response (Ps. 107), then a prayer led by the priest;
 - d. Fourth and final Old Testament reading from Joel 3:1-5, followed by a sung psalm response (Ps.104), then a prayer led by the priest.
- v. After these four Old Testament readings have been done, the Gloria is sung. As the Gloria is sung, the bells are ringing, and rose petals are released from the ceiling. The rose petals symbolize the flames of the Holy Spirit coming down upon the apostles.
- vi. Lector then proclaims the New Testament Epistle (Romans 8:22-27) followed by sung responsorial psalm (Psalm 19)
- vii. Priest proclaims the gospel, and gives the homily.
- viii. The rest of Mass is as usual until communion time. Patrick Franich will be receiving his first communion at the Mass.
- ix. At the final blessing, we will honor Our Lady in a special way
- x. Then there is the recessional hymn.

We will have a special worship aid available for this Mass, because it is quite a departure from our usual routine, and we hope the worship aid will make it easier for folks to understand what is occurring.
